Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord!

Blessed is the kingdom of our father David that is coming! Mark 11.9,10

The Lord sits enthroned as king for evermore.

The Lord shall give strength to his people;

the Lord shall give his people the blessing of peace. Psalms 29.9b,10

Your throne is God's throne, for ever; the sceptre of your kingdom is the sceptre of righteousness. Psalms 45.6

Now have come the salvation and the power and the kingdom of our God and the authority of his Christ. Revelation 12.10

And Jesus came and said to them, All authority in heaven and on earth has been given to me. Go therefore and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, and teaching them to obey everything that I have commanded you. And remember, I am with you always, to the end of the age. Matthew 28.18-20

Advent Meditations, Tuesdays 1, 8 and 15 December at 1900

Advent is the season of waiting. We are told to wait for judgement, for righteousness. We are told that one age will come to an end, and another one will begin. We are told that darkness will ultimately yield to light. These short, 30-minute meditations have two main purposes. First, to give some form to the formlessness of our Advent waiting: the three sessions are entitled 'Stars', 'Rain' and 'Voice'. Second, to offer some simple tips for our own individual spiritual practice in the form of meditative exercises around the three chosen themes. We will end each session by saying Compline together.

Study morning - Old Testament Prophecies in Matthew's Infancy Narrative

Join us on Saturday 5 December at 1030 for an interactive session exploring the fulfillment of Old Testament prophecies in Matthew's infancy narrative. We will read through Matthew 1-3, and look at the relevant Old Testament prophecies before discussing how the message of prophecy fulfillments relates to our lives today, and provides us with hope during difficult times. This session will be led by the CCV intern, Rosie, on zoom.
