CHRIST CHURCH

THE ANGLICAN CHURCH IN VIENNA

The Revd Canon Patrick Curran, Chaplain
The Revd Dr Robert Kinney, Honorary Assistant Curate
office@christchurchvienna.org, 01/7148900

All my hope on God is founded:
He doth still my trust renew.
Me through change and chance he guideth,
Only good and only true.
God unknown - He alone
Calls my heart to be His own

Still from earth to God eternal
Sacrifice of praise be done.
High above all praises praising for the gift of Christ his Son.
Christ doth call - One and all:
Ye who follow shall not fall.

—Robert Seymour Bridges (1844 – 1930)

LivingLight:

For this week's LivingLight Blog #84 – as part of the LivingLight in Summertime series – Maria Cristina is reflecting on something we often face when wondering how to protect God's creation: not knowing what to do. Her four haikus, "A Poem About What to Do," gives inspiration and ideas. Check it out on ccv-livinglight.org. Haikus are a short form of poetry, originally from Japan, beautiful and easy to compose. Everyone in Christ Church's community is invited to share some of what you see and feel over the summer months with regard to God's creation and creation-keeping in the form of a haiku. Please send one to eco@christchurchvienna.org.

Holy Communion from the Common Cup

The common cup has been restored symbolizing our unity in Christ. Note this is the common cup. Intinction (dipping the bread into the wine) is NOT permitted for hygienic reasons and as directed by the Bishops. If you feel uncertain about drinking from the chalice, continuing to receive the bread only is acceptable. Remain kneeling until the wine has passed. Should you have an active respiratory infection of any sort, we ask that you exercise caution and refrain from the cup.
