This week's LivingLight Blog #57: What green Christ Church reads... takes a look at the 56 blogs written over the past 12+months. Which topic attracted most attention? Which the least? What kind of blogs are Christchurch readers following most? Take a look and see whether you find yourself - and whether you guessed right in what was the most frequently read blog - by far. Check it out: <https://ccv-site.org/web/index.php/connect/living-light-eco-blog>.

Reading the Bible, Session Four - the most popular book in the world and the most important for Christians: This educational series is informed by both the academy and the Anglican tradition, and discusses the tools needed to understand the Bible - composed long ago in different cultures and languages. The next meeting is on 26 February from 10.00-11.00. Previous sessions can be located on our website.

As of now we are looking for accommodation for Charles Bishop (MES intern) for three months (April-June). Do you have a spare room, other accommodation or know of someone who can help?

Lent is a penitential season. The clergy are available to hear confessions and for general counsel. Please approach us individually or send an email to the office. Those who want to hear more about making a confession should contact the chaplain. He is happy to meet with you to explore gently, if this is the right thing for you.

Lent groups We are offering two. They will be Zoom on Tuesdays and Thursdays both at 7pm. Commencing Tuesday March 8, the Chaplain will lead a Lenten group on the Book of Acts, in preparation for the Greek Pilgrimage in May 2022 – deadline for registration for the pilgrimage is 25 February.

The Thursday Lent group will be led by Charles Bishop commencing Thursday 3 March. The sessions will be based on a group of psalms known as the 'Penitential Psalms' appropriate to the keeping of Lent.

Email: intern@christchurchvienna.org

Living in Love and Faith (LLF): We are offering a second instalment of Living in Love and Faith (LLF). The sessions are being coordinated by Daniel Green. If you are interested in joining the group email the church office. I will be sure to forward your email. You will find more information on the CofE website.

After the bazaar is before the bazar: Read carefully. Jennie Ratcliffe has already started making marmalades and jams. She requests "regular size" jam jars, i.e. no large coffee ones, mayonnaise ones or other odd sizes. Wash and remove the labels before bringing them to Church on Sundays or dropping off in the shop during the week
