Aug 31, 1900	Soundings resumes "What are human beings that you are mindful of them, mortals that you care for them?" (Psalm 8:4). The Psalmist asks an important question of God. What is a human being? It is a question that Christians should consider as people from every walk of life grapple with the nature of humanity. What does it mean to be human? How do answers to this question shape our understanding of our very culture? Join us for a 5-part Soundings series, starting Tuesday, 31 August, titled Anthropology and the Bible. The Revd Dr. Robert S. Kinney will guide us through sessions on this foundational concept -- our very humanity -- from both an anthropological and biblical perspective. Over the five weeks, we will look at: 1) definitions, theory, and religion, 2) economics and politics, 3) gender and sexuality, 4) families and kinship, and 5) race and ethnicity.

This week's LivingLight Blog #27:

<http://www.ccv-livinglight.org/>

Living Light in Summertime includes one new haiku - this time with a little story to go with it, courtesy of Gabe, bringing us some delightful thoughts and observations relating to creation and creation keeping. All of us are invited, throughout the summer months, to take a moment or two to notice God's creation - and to send an email to eco@christchurchvienna.org with our own haikus.

The Church Shop is open for trade.
Tuesdays to Fridays from 09:30 to 13:00.

If you have items to drop off that can be sold, write an email to bazaar@christchurchvienna.org Thank you.
