Something to ponder on Trinity Sunday

... we are given clues [about God] and they confirm the truth that God in himself, Being itself, consists of what we have called 'exchange'... In the inadequate analogy of our individual self-consciousness we can discern a dynamic dialogue between our sense perceptions, our thoughts about them and our evaluation of them, so that it is precisely when we are aware of holding a conversation within ourselves that we are most whole and most alive. This precious insight of Christian thought affirms that Being itself is an eternal giving and receiving. The same is said more simply in the words, 'God is love' – not 'God is loving,' nor 'God is ever ready to love', but 'God in himself is love.'

From Love's Redeeming work is done, Ed. Rowell et al

Concerning Receiving Holy Communion

The Church of England invites all baptised persons who are baptised and communicant members of churches subscribing to the doctrine of the Holy Trinity to receive Holy Communion. Those who do not wish to receive Communion are invited to come forward for a blessing. The practice of intinction (dipping the bread into the wine) is not permitted as directed by our bishop. If you are uncertain about drinking from the common cup receiving the bread only is acceptable.
