The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ, the love of God, and the communion of the Holy Spirit be with all of you. (2 Corinthians 13:13)

Go therefore and make disciples of all nations, baptising them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, (Matthew 28:19)

Peter, an apostle of Jesus Christ, to the exiles of the Dispersion in Pontus, Galatia, Cappadocia, Asia, and Bithynia, who have been chosen and destined by God the Father and sanctified by the Spirit to be obedient to Jesus Christ and to be sprinkled with his blood: May grace and peace be yours in abundance. (1 Peter 1:2)

John to the seven churches that are in Asia: Grace to you and peace from him who is and who was and who is to come, and from the seven spirits who are before his throne, and from Jesus Christ, the faithful witness, the firstborn of the dead, and the ruler of the kings of the earth. This week's LivingLight Blog #73: Viennese Water – A minor miracle! invites you to travel to Kaiserbrunn - from where the Vienna water pipeline brings us our water. A little museum out there tells the amazing story of what it took to make this pipeline happen – nearly 150 years ago. If you are around in late July and want to join an outing to the museum, do send an email to eco@christchurchvienna.org. In the meantime, check out the blog on <https://ccv-site.org/web/index.php/connect/living-light-eco-blog>

Holy Communion from the Common Cup

The common cup has been restored symbolizing our unity in Christ. Note this is the common cup. Intinction (dipping the bread into the wine) is no longer possible for hygienic reasons and as directed by the bishops. If you feel uncertain about drinking from the chalice continuing to receive the bread only is acceptable. Remain kneeling until the wine has passed to acknowledge the presence of Christ in both the bread and the wine. Should you have an active respiratory infection of any sort, we ask that you exercise caution and refrain from the cup.

Gregory of Nazianzus on the Trinity

No sooner do I conceive of the one than I am illumined by the splendour of the three; no sooner do I distinguish them than I am carried back to the one.
