Sunday Readings for Trinity 14

10 September 2023

Ezekiel 33.7-11 Psalm 119.33-40 Romans 13.8-end Matthew 18.15-20

The Revd Canon Patrick Curran, Chaplain
The Revd Dr Robert Kinney, Honorary Assistant Chaplain

It is the Christian belief that man exists in order to glorify God with the glory of heaven as his goal. ...

Glory belongs to the experience of Christian saints through the ages, and of the Christian saints nothing is more characteristic than a growing Christlikeness, which owes nothing to self and all to God, and the quest of a goal in which Godlikeness and the adoring vision of God are one.

Michael Ramsey, the 100th Archbishop of Canterbury, Glory, A Dictionary of Christian Spirituality, SCM 1983

This evening at 18.00 Evening Prayer with Hymns

We welcome all visitors and newcomers.

The Church of England invites all baptized persons who are communicant members of churches which subscribe to the doctrine of the Holy Trinity to receive Holy Communion. Those who do not wish to receive Communion are invited to come forward for a blessing. The practice of intinction (dipping the bread into the wine) is not permitted for hygiene reasons as directed by our Bishops. If you are uncertain about drinking from the common cup, receiving the bread only is acceptable.
